Greatest Bargains this Season

Gov. P. St. John's lecture at the Congregational church to-night promises to be an enjoyable affair, as the eloquence of the lecturer is well known as well as his ability to properly handle the temperance question, upon which subject he will speak. Rev. Father S. F. Ryan, the successor of the late Father McCarthy as pastor of the Church of the Immaculate Conception, has determined to take measures to complete the erection of the steeple and to place a bell therein. Other needed improvements will also be made. The congregation will heartily support Father Ryan, who has become very popular since he assumed the pastorate.

The request of the gas company to lay mains on Sixteenth street west to Boundary, on Boundary from Sixteenth to Seventeenth street, on P street from Eighteenth to Nineteenth street, on Twenty-third street from F to E street, all northwest, and on Maine avenue between Third and Four-and-a-half streets southwest. The request was referred to the engineer commissioner, who recommended the granting of a permit to lay a main on Maine avenue. The other localities are under consideration.

The estate of George W. Biggs, deceased, has offered to sell the Riggs school building to the district for $20,000.

The commissioners have granted the application for a fire plug on F street, between Ninth and Tenth streets northwest.

A delegation of Seventh street business men waited on the commissioners yesterday and asked the restoration of Officer Offutt.

Inspector Entwisle has condemned two wooden buildings on M street, Georgetown.

The commissioners have granted the request of Col. Rockwell, who asked permission to roplace old telegraph poles at Seventeenth and Pennsylvania avenue and in front of the Corcoran Art Gallery.

The commissioners in session yesterday further considered the matter of street improvements. They are compelled to meet the law making appropriations for improvements, which reads: "For work on sundry avenues and streets, and replacement of pavements on streets named in classes A. B. C. and D. to the estimate of the commissioners of the district for 1884, $250,000. Provided that out of this sum all the work on the avenues and streets and replacement of pavements on streets named in the aforesaid classes, situated east of the capitol, shall be completed in full." They did not come to any decision yesterday, and they will probably continue their examination and reach a decision to-day.

Bids were opened in the commissioners office yesterday for supplying school furniture to the Amidon, Analostau, and Just received—10,000 Towels, in Huck, Damask, Honeycomb, size 45x26, extra quality, 25c each.

SATURDAY, APRIL 7, 1883.

Miss Annie K. Humphery,

Taking up the California routes, he disposed of the Julian-Colton service, and then reviewed the evidence connected with the Redding-Alturas route. The route from Rawlins to White river was next considered. Mr. Ker referred to Gon. Sherman's indorsement of one of the petitions for increase on that route; had marched and fought under his command, and believed him to indorse the petition; he did it; and it was put on file in the department. That was all there was fin it. Although Walle and Miner had sworn that Rerdell held the route, the evidence showed that he never drew a cent of the pay.

We have only this year's production to offer, and they consist of the very latest styles and newest shades. We have made reductions in the price of every garment.

Our stock of Silk and Woolen Mantillas and Dolmans for spring is most complete and includes all the latest Paris Novel-ties, and cannot be surpassed in ties, and cannot be surpassed in variety of styles and reasonable evidence showed that he never drew a cent of the pay.

"I wish to show you the petitions on this route," said Mr. Ker when he had taken up the Vermillion-Sioux Falls route; "they are precisely allke in the headings."

When he had discoursed for some time upon this subject, Mr. Ker proceeded to consider the last of the routes named in the indictment—Bismarck to Tongue river, Dakota. This route has been talked of more than any other in the indictment," he said, "because they (the contractors) tried to run it themselves." A light weight Wrap is considered indispensable to a lady's wardrobe, and as these gar-ments can now be purchased for about what the materials would The evidence given in relation to this route was more voluminous than of any of the other routes, and before it had been fully reviewed cost they should be examined to be appreciated.

A Grievance of the Tailors.

The Philadelphia Tailors' union has issued an address to the tailors of the United States, calling attention to the "trying on" abuse. It says "that it is with pain the tailors see the art of cutting, which has been brought to a high standard of excellence in this country, degenerating into the mantua-making business," and calls upon all to "discourage this growing evil and place a higher premium on the art of cutting, that they may have the satisfaction of rescuing it from among the lost asts, where it is fast drifting."

I retired from the mantua-making business about a year ago, and find it much more satisfactory to the wearer as sell as to the tailor to employ a man who understands his husi-We are now prepared to offer prices than the same quality of lowest. work has ever been offered.
